Re: Application #60/452,298 filed on 03/03/2003.

To Whom it may concern,

I received a filing receipt acknowledging the receipt of the above application. Unfortunately the application was recorded as a provisional application and I intended it to be a non-provisional. My cover letter does not state that the application was provisional as per §1.51(c). Furthermore my application is already relying on an earlier filing date of a provisional application, so it is necessary for it to be rerecorded as non-provisional.

I want to file the missing parts (the oath or declaration, and the fees). But I hope that I can first receive a corrected filing receipt that indicates the application is a non-provisional one, and a corrected notice to file missing parts, indicating the missing parts and fees for a non-provisional application.

Please do not hesitate to fax me back or call me, if you have any questions. The filing receipt in question as well as the notice to file missing parts are attached.

Sincerely

Ivan Vachovsky
